Text: I Corinthians 1.10-13

I Corinthians 1.10. Now I plead with you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the judgement.

11. For it has been declared to me concerning you, my brethren, by those of Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you. 12. Now I say this, that each of you says, "I am of Paul," or "I am of Apollos," or "I am of Cephas," or "I am of Christ."

13. Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? (NKJV)

Objective: to remind us of our kingdom agenda and to recognize the motives behind the political divide in our nation and churches.

1. How did division come between Christ followers in Corinthian?

2. What questions did Paul ask? How did these questions address the problem of the division in the church?

3. How do you see life? How does this affect your politics?

4. Explain how politics, parties, and politicians work in America:

5. Explain how we let politics divide the church:

6. Explain who Jesus would vote for:

7. Explain the political viewpoint of the church:

8. Explain how we maintain our political unity in Christ:
